五悦亭

RIESLING MONTH

"Rieslings are light, fruity, floral, and great at expressing its terroir. These handpicked Rieslings all tell a great story. It also pairs well with the refined Cantonese selection at 5 ON 25. May you enjoy a glass or a bottle, with great company and atmosphere, as much as I did when I first tasted them."

Cheers!

Saurwein Chi, Elgin, South Africa, 2021

Glass $25 | Bottle $108

Steeped in the history of 17th century winemaking, Jessica Saurwein's forefathers made sour wine for the Emperor of Austria. To redeem her family's reputation in wine, she started her namesake brand Saurwein Wines. All Saurwein labels are painted by South African artist Isabella Kuijers, with a theme that is connected to the name of the wine and the natural flora and fauna surrounding each vineyard. The beautiful labels complement the deep aromatics and intriguing flavours in the bottle.

Two Hands, Lots of In, Lots of Out, Tasmania, Australia, 2022

Glass $28 | Bottle $118

This wine pays homage to the people behind Two Hands. "After 22 years of this caper, I can't believe we pulled it off. It truly has been a magic carpet ride. This wine pays testament to all the employees and growers that have worked so hard to help me achieve all that we have. Over the years there have been lots of ins, lots of out but we have kept the rain on the tracks with a strong perpetual motion. To all, I offer you a huge thank you." - Michael Twefltree
